Denis Canavan, Director, Department of Land Use & Growth Management

The Department of Land Use and Growth Management presented information regarding the proposed Lexington Park Development District (LPDD) Plan. The hearing was conducted at the Southern Maryland Higher Education Center and was duly advertised in The Enterprise newspaper on April 27, 2005, and May 4, 2005. The process followed to date for the proposed Plan, including approval by the Planning Commission, is outlined in the proposed Resolution.

Mr. Jackman provided an overview of the proposed changes to the Plan, providing highlights, land use designations, transportation/roads information, adequate public facilities information as it relates to the Plan, land-use types and categories, etc. It was reported that the Draft Plan and the County-wide Transportation Plan would be carefully orchestrated so that any changes to both Plans would correspond appropriately. The date of the Draft Lexington Park Development District Master Plan is February 28, 2005.

Commissioner President McKay opened the public hearing for citizen comments, with the following individuals speaking:

Tana Glockner, PO Box 907, 23028 Three Notch Road, California, across from Ruby Tuesdays and First Colony – Glockner Insurance Agency – Outlined previous attempts to have the property(ies) at this location rezoned to commercial, and the continual denials. Addressed the numerous reasons for the need for rezoning due to the location of commercial areas directly across the street, and the inability to sell the property to anyone, as no one would wish to live at that location with the traffic on Route 235 and commercial locations so close by.

Suzi Sprinkle-Raley, 23046 Three Notch Road, California – Owns two parcels of land on this location. Asked Commissioners to consider rezoning the location to commercial. Outlined the RMX zoning, stating that the County told them at the time that it would be conducive to residential zoning, although no one wants to live there. Stated that Dean Beck owns two, three-story 7,000 square foot buildings next to them, and that the properties should be rezoned.

Kara Mattingly, 23046 Three Notch Road, California – Agrees fully with the previous speakers. Her son must stand on Route 235 at 6:35 a.m. in order to catch the bus, and it is unsafe. Does not meet residential zoning standards, and additionally, they are unable to open the windows at night due to the noise and the inability to sleep.

Michael McCauley, 41693 Garner Road, Mechanicsville – Represents the Justice and Advocacy Council of St. Mary’s County under the Archdiocese of Washington – Outlined numerous ways the County could provide or assist in providing affordable housing to individuals on a limited income, including the following: rezoning land for higher base residential density, higher base density incentives, developer agreements through the PUD process, reducing or abating required fees, and requiring affordable housing set asides in market rate developments. (Written comments submitted for the record – on file with LUGM)

Mike McGhee, 21058 Ricky’s Place, Lexington Park – Disagreed with Mr. McCauley, the previous speaker. Asked the County to please inform citizens when forest preserve areas are to be demolished. Reported that trees around his home were recently removed with no notification.

George Baroniak, P.O. Box 268, Dameron – Member, Agricultural Preservation Board – Asked Commissioners to slow the process down, and not to rush into expanding the Lexington Park Development District. In six years, the Agricultural Preservation Board will revisit the issue and can then make a recommendation.

Gordon Aldridge, P.O. Box 325, Ridge – One of the owners of the Leonardtown Ford-Lincoln Mercury dealership. Owns some properties across from First Colony and has had offers on the land. When the zoning is known, offers are then rescinded. Asked Commissioners to rezone to commercial.

Chip Dudderar, California – Spoke regarding critical areas and stated that he was disappointed that the Planning Commission added Chesapeake Bay critical areas into the LPDD and also stated that it is wrong to target for development those sensitive areas. Asked that they be removed from the LPDD, especially the RCA overlays. Outlined reasons why the Woods at Myrtle Point is an extremely fragile property. Wrote to the Commissioners about this over a month ago.
with no response. Spoke regarding dirt which drains into water located on the property due to development, and stated that although development is welcome, the Commissioners should tell developers to keep their dirt out of our water.

Bernard F. Beavan, Tax Map 42, Parcel 119, Leonardtown – Asked Commissioners to put his property back into the Development District. Stated that he was unaware in the past of its removal from the LPDD, and that it was removed in error and by mistake. Previously submitted a package to the Commissioners with comments and letters outlining his request. The property is devalued as a result. (Written comments submitted for the record – on file with LUGM)

Bernard I. Beavan, Leonardtown – Stated that his father (the previous speaker) said it all.

Nora Collins Kiehner, P.O. Box 29260 – With the Archdiocese of Washington D.C. Has worked for years with residents of Lexington Manor, and the need for affordable housing in the County is apparent. Outlined assistance offered, and stated that their organization would like to work with the County in the matter of housing, especially as it relates to affordable and senior housing.

Tim Bechwith, Hollywood – Supports the statements of Bernard F. Beavan, and stated that Mr. Beavan’s land should be placed in the LPDD. Removing it from the LPDD in the first place was an injustice.

Larry Day – Lexington Park - Stated that the sanitary sewer system is better for the citizens, and that he is in support of Mr. Beavan’s property being placed back into the LPDD.

Harvey Henning, Wildewood Village – Stated that Wildewood Village is a retirement community, and that it should be completed as planned, but that the new owners want to build nothing but more and more houses. He wants to see the integrity of the community maintained, and sees nothing about Wildewood Village mentioned in the LPDD.

Paul F. Summers, III, 8005 So. Maryland Blvd., Owings - Spoke regarding property located at Tax Map 34, Parcel 80, 104, 122, 125, and 688. Outlined descriptions on what good planning should be in respect to these parcels and inputs and background that supports making changes. Asked Commissioners to zone the property up to the lake as commercial to zone the rear property RL. (Written comment submitted for the record – on file with LUGM)

Richard Kabot, Potomac – Stated that the property outlined by the previous speaker, Paul Summers, III, would have significant retail demand, and the opportunity to develop the land is desired. Big retailers which are different than those currently in the county could be brought in if the zoning is changed.
David Dudziec, 22055 Longbow Drive – Reported that something is wrong with his septic system, and that the county inspector signed off on it; however, it seems that a lot of building codes were never addressed. Floor joists are not the correct size, and problems may eventually become a liability issue for the County. Also stated that the properties across from First Colony should be rezoned commercial, even though he doesn’t live there.

Robin Guyther, P.O. Box 502, Leonardtown – Expressed support for Mr. Beavan’s property to be placed into the LPDD, and stated that more land should be added into the Development District. He indicated that he believes one reason that development is creeping out into other areas is due to the lack of land being in the Development District.

Linda Vallandingham, 21705 Indian Bridge Road, California – Opposed to the expansion of the LPDD just to get school sites. Stated that 40% of land is remaining for development in the LPDD, and outlined reasons for the impact and destruction in the Rural Legacy area. Outlined sensitive areas that need to be rural or resource protected, as well as watershed issues. Stated that the Beavan property should be put back into the RPD. Numerous citizens raised their hands in support of Ms. Vallandingham’s comments.

Robert Jarboe, 20040 Pear Hill Lane, Leonardtown – Opposed to enlarging the LPDD just to get school sites, stating that it is a bad precedent to set for developers. Outlined reasons not to expand, including natural resources, the Eastern Narrowmouth Toad, and watershed areas protection needs. Stated that the Commissioners need to get a handle on the Board of Education so they can make up their mind on school sites.

Candice Anderson, 21273 Indian Bridge Road, California – Spoke on behalf of her uncles. Outlined their grain production farming on Indian Bridge Road, and outlined problems with the southern end of the road due to lack of road upgrades and the current inability of trucks to safely maneuver the road. The problems would become much worse if the traffic on the road increases due to the proposed changes. This would severely impact their farming operations. Also outlined reasons not to build a school on this road, and stated that Mr. Beavan already received a gift by maintaining his current zoning. If the Beavan property is placed in the LPDD, then all the properties on that side of the road (west side) should also be placed in the LPDD.

Wanda Norris, 21735 Indian Bridge Road, California – Remarked that she gives her full support for Linda Vallandingham. Read a statement on behalf of Mrs. Gladys Dement regarding her property which was purchased by the state to build a lake many years ago. They were told they had to sell or their property would be condemned; therefore, Mr. and Mrs. Dement sold 75 acres of land with all their numerous facilities. The state then accumulated all the surrounding land that is now a watershed park. A reliable source of water is needed if the County is to continue being developed.

Charlotte Norris, 21725 Indian Bridge Road, California – Opposed to the LPDD. Keep rural areas rural and don’t invade. The watershed should be maintained. Stated that if the Beavan property is included in the LPDD, then all the properties on the same side of the road should be as well.

Barry Minchez, 21880 Magnolia Drive, California, Maple Run Subdivision off Indian Bridge Road – Agrees with Linda Vallandingham, and is opposed to the inclusion of Indian Bridge Road into the LPDD. Expressed his opposition to the school site.

Bubby Norris, 23678 Hurry Road, Chaptico – Opposed to any increase in the LPDD and is opposed to a school site on Indian Bridge Road. Stated that the Board of Education has made poor decisions regarding school sites.

Robin Hahnel, 43244 Gum Spring Drive, Leonardtown (Redgate community) – Urged Commissioners not to expand the LPDD at this time due to unplanned growth issues that first need to be resolved. Stated that he and his wife teach classes on these types of issues and TDRs. Stated that the County must address the severe lack of affordable housing, and that parts of the Zoning Ordinance are problematic, in particular, P. 26-2. The larger problem of how to redirect growth into the Development District should be addressed. Stated that the problem of the incompetence of the School Board should not be resolved by expanding the Development District, and the Plan smacks of responding to developers.

Marc Cohen, OKGS – Stated that Mr. Beavan’s property should go back into the Development District, and that it was understood that it would be placed back into it when the County looked at the LPDD again. Outlined numerous reasons to do so.

Donald Strickland, 46033 Strickland Road, Great Mills – Against expansion of the LPDD, stating that there are still areas remaining to build. Also reported that the watershed is coming down into Great Mills, and that the watershed should be protected. Agreed with property owners across from First Colony on Route 235 that the property should be rezoned to commercial.

Julie Randall, Lexington Park – Opposed to any expansion of the LPDD, stating that more than half of the current LPDD has not yet been developed, which constitutes more than 8,000 acres. No compelling reason to expand at this point, and good planning dictates that new schools are built when the infrastructure is in place to support them. Outline costs to build that infrastructure, and stated that the county only needs to look at Joy Chapel Road to see what happens when the county builds a school in the rural area. Asked the county not to widen Indian Bridge Road at Cecil’s Mill, and to think long term. Encouraged the Commissioners to provide assistance to the Board of Education in finding and procuring property.

David Triantos, Leonardtown – Made mention of the area east of Route 4 and the way it looked on the map. Also stated that it is a hard sell for Mr. Beavan.
Clark Bennett, 44038 Millstone Way, Wildewood Village – Expressed his worry about the expansion of Wildewood Village under this Plan.

Delegate John F. Wood, Jr. – Submitted written comments only – on file with LUGM.

Don Nolan, Vice President of the Seafarers Harry Lundeberg School of Seamanship – Submitted written comments only – on file with LUGM.

Eugene St. Clair – Submitted written comments only – on file with LUGM.
Ed Curley, III - Submitted written comments only – on file with LUGM.

As no other citizens were present to speak, the Commissioner President closed the public hearing. The record will remain open for a period of ten days, and will then be placed on an upcoming agenda of the Board of County Commissioners for review, discussion, and then a final decision.
